

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The North Carolina Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans is proud to announce the unveiling of our first interstate billboard intended to reach the general public of North Carolina with our organization's message.

This first billboard, advocating for the protection of Confederate memorials in North Carolina and bearing an image of UNC's boy soldier memorial (commonly referred to as "Silent Sam") is located on Interstate 40 east near the intersection of Interstate 95 and in the vicinity of Benson. Declaring "HELP US PROTECT OUR VETERANS' MONUMENTS!" the billboard references the recently increased efforts of Durham-based communists and Governor Roy Cooper to destroy and forcefully remove memorials to our veterans.

More billboards will be appearing in the near future on the state's highways as we defend the honor of our ancestors and inform the public of recent misguided efforts by our Governor and activists to politicize, remove, censor, and pervert Confederate heritage. A photo is attached.
