Story Form

In observance of the 150th Anniversary of the War, the North Carolina Civil War History Center (NCCWHC) in Fayetteville, North Carolina is collecting family memories, legends, and stories passed down through generations about experiences from the War and its aftermath. This information will be edited to 350 words and preserved in digital form at the NCCWHC. Storytellers will become Members of the History Center and will receive a car magnet by mail as well as our email newsletters if an email address is provided.

You may submit your story electronically at www.nccivilwarcenter.org/share-a-story,
OR complete and mail this form to NCCWHC, PO Box 53865, Fayetteville, NC 28305,
OR complete and scan this form, and email the PDF to cc@nccivilwarcenter.org.

By signing below you are consenting to the use of your material by the NCCWHC on its web site and in its publications, broadcasts and other presentations, and to its publication elsewhere at the Center's discretion. You certify that the submission is your own work or, to the extent that it borrows from published, broadcast or copyrighted material, gives credit to its source or sources. You also consent to verification of factual content and to editing for clarity, including spelling, grammar and syntax. The NCCWHC has no desire to sanitize history, but contributors should avoid giving unnecessary offense or personal insult to others.
